Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-7, 12-14, 16-17, 19, 21, 38 and 75 are drawn to 7-deaza-2-benzyl substituted purine compounds and a method for making same, classified in class 544, subclass 264+.
- II. Claims 24, 25, 28, 30, 32 and 35 are drawn to 7-deaza-2-benzyl-6-heterocyclic substituted purine compounds, classified in class 544, subclass 284.
- III. Claims 39 and 49 are drawn to a method for treating a disease associated with an A₃ adenosine receptor in a subject (patient or cell), classified in class 514, subclasses 261 and 266.
- IV. Claim 51 is drawn to a method for treating gastrointestinal disorder by administering a compound of Invention I or II, classified in class 514, subclass 266.
- V. Claim 59 is drawn to a method for treating eye damage by administering a compound of Invention I or II, classified in class 514, subclass 266.

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case, Inventions I and II identify two distinct compositions of matter. Invention II contains an additional heterogroup. Applicant is entitled to only one independent and distinct composition of matter. Additionally, the process in Invention I will not produce the compounds of Invention II.

Inventions I and III, IV and V are related as product and process of use. Likewise, Inventions II and III, IV and V are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the products of Invention I and Invention II may be used in materially different methods than those of Inventions III, IV and V.

Inventions III, IV and V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case, Inventions III, IV and V possess different functions. While the function of Invention III is to treat diseases associated with A₃ adenosine receptor cells, the functions of Inventions IV and V, as claimed, are not limited to treatment of diseases associated with A₃ adenosine receptor cells. Specifically, the functions of Inventions IV and V are treating of gastrointestinal disorder and damage to the eye, respectively, neither of which need not to be A₃ adenosine related. Additionally, the Inventions produce different effects. Treating of the eye and a gastrointestinal disorder, either of which may or may not be A₃ adenosine related, indicates that the Inventions produce different effects.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their classifications and/or recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143). Applicant is entitled to one composition of matter and one method for using same. A method will be examined insofar as it relates to the elected composition of matter.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
